GOLDEN HARVEST
FOOD BANK

feeding lives together

Our History

- Founded in 1982 by a group of citizens in response to community need for food assistance
- What began in a small warehouse in downtown Augusta grew to operate out of 4 warehouses in Aiken and Augusta, providing over 13 million meals each year
- Mike Firmin was the first Executive Director, followed by Travis McNeal and Amy Breitmann
- A member of Feeding America, the nation's food bank network

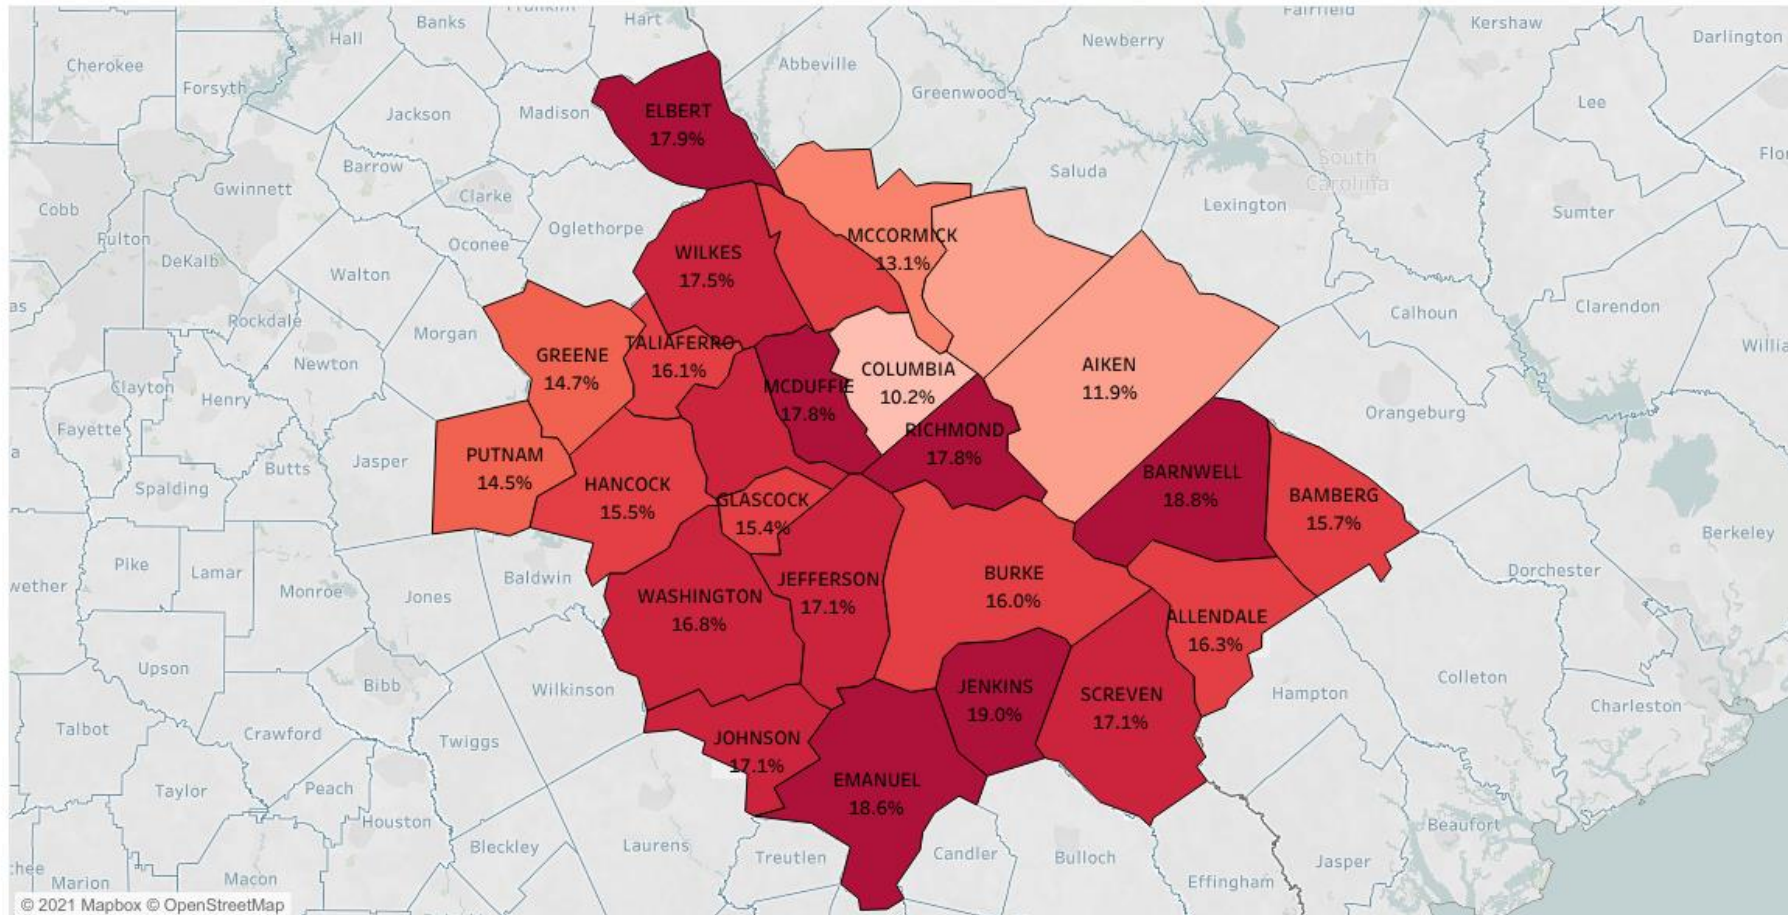

What We Do

- We provide food assistance for families, children and seniors in need in 25 counties across GA and SC
- We serve as a food supplier for 175 partner hunger relief organizations across this area
- We operate direct service programs for vulnerable populations like children, seniors and rural communities
 - Child Nutrition: The BackPack Program and School Pantries
 - Senior Nutrition: Senior Food Box program and Home Delivered Meals
 - The Mobile Market Program
 - The Master's Table Soup Kitchen
 - SNAP Advocacy

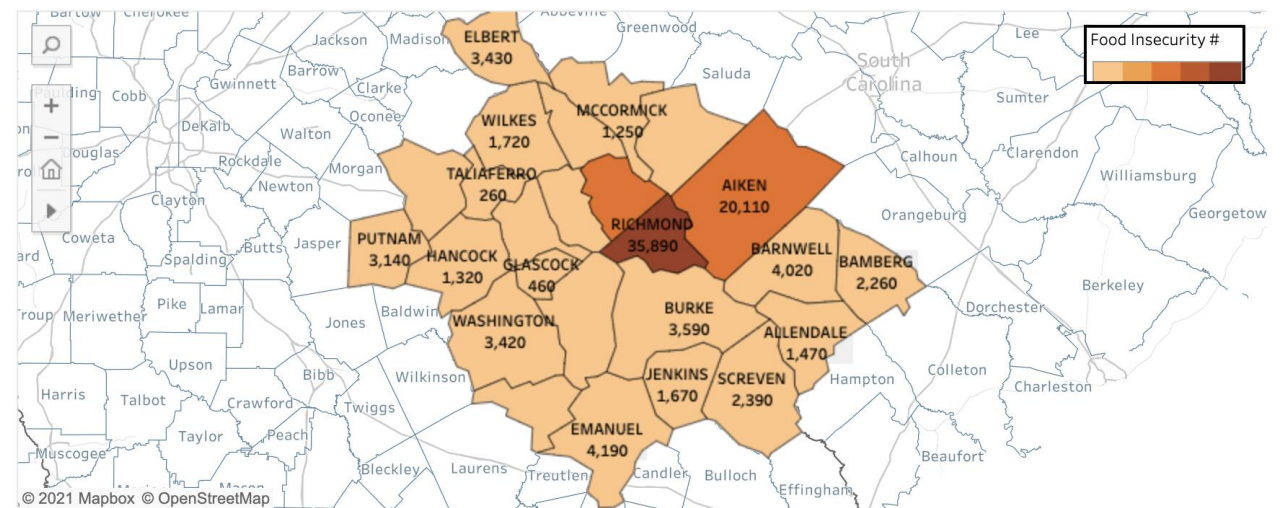

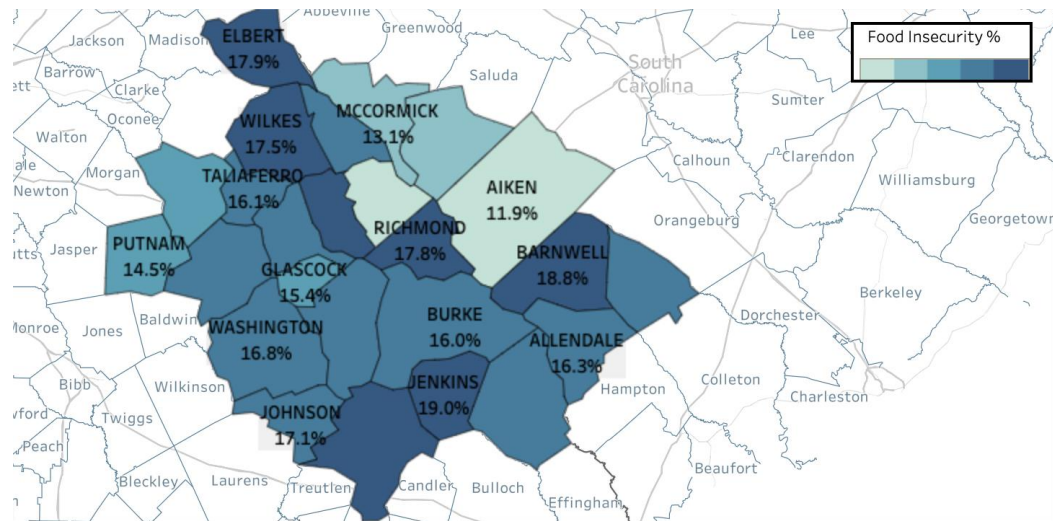

Food Insecurity in Our Service Area

A Year Of Challenge Sparks New Growth

- At the height of the pandemic, hunger had risen by 22% in our communities and we saw more need for food assistance than ever before.
- Golden Harvest Food Bank continues to see elevated needs across the 25 counties that we serve
- 1 in 7 people facing hunger
- 1 in 5 children facing hunger
- Many of those neighbors struggle unseen as local food pantries reopen and they seek assistance there.
