Statewide Equalized Adjusted Property Tax Digest

The purpose of this appropriation is to establish an equalized adjusted property tax digest for each county and for the State as a whole for use in allocating state funds for public school systems and equalizing property tax digests for collection of the State 1/4 mill; to provide the Revenue Commissioner statistical data regarding county Tax Assessor compliance with requirements for both uniformity of assessment and level of assessment; and to establish the appropriate level of assessment for centrally assessed public utility companies.

Program Overview

Summary of Activities: Reviews validated property sales and conducts annual appraisals to determine the ratio of assessed value of property to its sales price. This review ensures that property is being assessed equitably within classes of property, between classes of property, and between counties. These efforts result in the preparation and issuance of the Statewide Equalized Adjusted Property Tax Digest.

Target Population: The Department of Education, local school systems, tax commissioners, tax assessors’ offices, governing authorities of each county and municipality having an independent school system, the Department of Revenue, and the Office of Planning and Budget.

Delivery Mechanism: Appraisers are employed by the Department to perform much of the work required by this program.

Number of examinations conducted of state-chartered banks and credit unions	205	200	183	184

Summary of Activities: Primary responsibilities include the supervision, regulation, and examination of Georgia state-chartered financial institutions including: banks, credit unions and trust companies; as well as Merchant Acquirer Limited Purpose Banks (MALPBs) chartered in Georgia. The division also regulates bank holding companies and international banking organizations conducting business in Georgia. Banking and Finance shares this regulatory responsibility for Georgia state-chartered financial institutions with federal agencies (FDIC, FRB, and NCUA). The division also monitors developing industry trends that could impact the banking industry.

Target Population: Georgia financial institutions and consumers.

Location: The division has a main office in Atlanta and examination district offices in Woodstock, Loganville, Dublin, and Tifton.

Delivery Mechanism: The department has a joint examination agreement with the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC). Federal and state examiners take turns examining every institution, checking for compliance with both state and federal regulations each time. Representatives from both Georgia's department and FDIC are present at these joint examinations and share the workload.

Timing: Banks are checked by either state or federal examiners once each year. Problem banks are examined once per six months jointly.

Noteworthy: This program generates revenue through its examinations of state-licensed banks.

Non-Depository Financial Institution Supervision

The purpose of this appropriation is to protect consumers from unfair, deceptive, or fraudulent residential mortgage lending practices and money service businesses, protect consumers by licensing, regulating, and enforcing applicable laws and regulations, and provide efficient and flexible application, registrations, and notification procedures for non-depository financial institutions.

Program Overview

Performance Measures:	FY 2011	FY 2012	FY 2013	FY 2014
Mortgage Asset Research Institute Mortgage Fraud Index (Target < 100)	66	36	25	N/A

Summary of Activities: This division is responsible for the licensing, supervision, and examination of mortgage brokers, lenders, registrants, processors and loan originators. The Mortgage Section establishes regulations for residential mortgage lenders, brokers, and mortgage loan originators and monitors compliance with the Georgia Residential Mortgage Act (GRMA) and the Georgia Fair Lending Act (GAFLA). The primary responsibility of staff is to process new and renewal applications for licensing or registration of regulated entities; secondarily, staff members also examine mortgage licensees for compliance and conduct fraud investigations. As needed, they collect supporting evidence for the division attorney to act upon or forward to the Attorney General's office. Staff members also work with law enforcement as needed on criminal mortgage fraud cases. Additionally, the Money Service Business Section is responsible for licensing and supervision of check cashers, sale of check companies and money transmitters (collectively referred to as Money Service Businesses or MSBs). MSB staff primarily process new and renewal applications, and also conduct examinations, report the results, and recommend administrative action where needed.

Target Population: Georgia mortgage brokers, lenders, registrants, loan originators, mortgage loan processors, money service businesses, and consumers.

Location: 2990 Brandywine Rd., Atlanta

Delivery Mechanism: State employees process license applications, conduct examinations, and assess fines for violations of Georgia law.

Noteworthy: This program generates revenue through fees and fines when enough staff are available to conduct examinations.

Equal Opportunity, Georgia Commission on

The purpose of this appropriation is to enforce the Georgia Fair Employment Practices Act of 1978, as amended, and the Fair Housing Act, which makes it unlawful to discriminate against any individual.

			Program Overview
Summary of Activities: The Equal Opportunity Commission enforces Georgia's anti-discrimination statutes within state government and in the housing market.
Target Population: Georgia citizens
Delivery Mechanism: The office receives complaints alleging discrimination and seeks to mediate and conciliate. They must complete formal investigations if mediation is unsuccessful. The complainant may then separately choose to pursue further action through other agencies or the courts.
Fund Sources: In order to be eligible for millions in federal funding (particularly community development block grant funding through DCA), each state is required to have a formally certified anti-discrimination office. Thus, most states have a similar agency.
Noteworthy: EOC was recently placed under a performance improvement agreement with the federal department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD). EOC reorganized its personnel to put more management staff in direct customer service positions, which should allow the commission to meet HUD's requirements.
