

Senator Robert Brown

Senate District 26

Robert Brown of Macon was first elected to the State Senate from middle Georgia's 26th District in a special election held in August 1991 to fill an unexpired term.

Sen. Brown serves as the Democratic Leader in the Senate. He currently is Secretary of the Veterans and Military Affairs Committee and also sits on the Administrative Affairs, Economic Development, Insurance and Labor, Joint Legislative Ethics, Joint Lottery Oversight, Judiciary, and Reapportionment and Redistricting Committees.

Sen. Brown has served on the Senate-House Regional Hospital Study Committee and the Aged and Disabled Transportation Task Force. He has also been a member of the Senate Study Committee on Children at Risk, the Senate Task Force on Violence in the Media, and the Senate Government Procurement of Recycled Products Study Committee.

September 2009