

Senator Buddy Carter
Senate District 1

Senator Earl L. "Buddy" Carter is a Republican representing Senate District 1. He represents Bryan County and portions of Chatham and Liberty counties.

Senator Carter serves as Chairman of the Public Safety Committee. He is also a member of the Appropriations, Health and Human Services and Higher Education committees.

Senator Carter brings a wealth of government experience to his Senate position. He served the City of Pooler with planning and zoning from 1989 to 1993 and with the city council from 1994 to 1995.

From 1996 until 2004, Senator Carter proudly served as mayor to the City of Pooler. He was first elected to the state legislature in 2005 to the House of Representatives. Senator Carter was elected to the State Senate in November of 2009.

Senator Carter is a native of Savannah and graduated from nearby Garden City's Robert W. Groves High School in 1975. He earned an Associate's Degree from Young Harris College in 1977 and a Bachelor's of Science in Pharmacy from the University of Georgia in 1980.

Senator Carter and his wife, Amy, have three adult sons: Joel (wife Megan), Barrett and Travis and two granddaughters Mary Margaret and Adelaide. He is a pharmacist with Carter's Pharmacy, Inc. and is a Methodist.

Senator Carter currently serves on the board of trustees for the Mighty Eighth Air Force Heritage Museum, Young Harris College and The Coastal Bank.

August 2013, Senate Press Office