

Senator Judson Hill
Senate District 32

Senator Judson Hill was first elected to the Georgia Senate in 2004 to represent East Cobb County and a portion of Sandy Springs in Fulton County, Georgia. Sen. Hill currently serves as Chairman of the Senate Finance Committee. He is also a member of the Senate Appropriations, Health & Human Services and Rules Committees.

Between 2006 and 2014, Sen. Hill served as Vice Chairman of the Senate Republican Caucus. Previously, he served as Chairman of the Senate Reapportionment and Redistricting Committee and the Government Oversight Committee. Sen. Hill currently serves as Chairman of the Atlanta-Fulton County legislative delegation and as chairman of several committees for national legislative organizations. Prior to these appointments, he served as Chairman of the Cobb County legislative delegation as well as the Fair Tax Study Committee.

Sen. Hill has gained a reputation as a hard working conservative leader committed to understanding the issues and voting true to his district. He is a principle-driven legislator who believes Georgia has a strong and proud heritage of faith, family and freedom. He works with his fellow legislators to preserve and encourage these values and ensure that future generations of Georgians have even greater opportunities than those who have gone before. In 2014, Sen. Hill was named “Legislator of the Year” by James Magazine as well as national “Legislator of the Year” by the American Legislative Exchange Council.

Sen. Hill is a strong supporter of lowering the tax and regulatory burden on Georgians and free market healthcare solutions. He passed legislation capping the state income tax rate, measures to authorize the cross state purchase of health insurance and the nation’s first patient centered prevention focused free market healthcare reform legislation to lower costs and make healthcare more accessible. His work was instrumental in the passage of Georgia’s comprehensive civil justice reform. In his role as Senator, he has also championed measures protecting people from government’s eminent domain powers, the nation’s toughest immigration reform legislation and the nation’s toughest sexual predator bill.

Sen. Hill served in the Reagan Administration as an Assistant United States Attorney and also in Washington D.C. as a White House appointee at the United States Department of State, Agency for International Development. Prior to those appointments, Sen. Hill worked for President Reagan on the Advance Team and on the Reagan-Bush ’84 campaign. Sen. Hill graduated from Emory University with a B.A. in Economics and Political Science. His Juris Doctorate degree is from Mercer University. He holds numerous professional licenses and is the co-author of the business book “Enhancing Your Business Value”.

Sen. Hill commissioned and currently serves as a Judge Advocate General Officer in the Georgia State Defense Force supporting the National Guard and Georgia’s State Guard. Sen. Hill and his wife, Shelly, who are proud parents of three children, have lived in East Cobb for over 25 years. Shelly is a life long resident of Cobb County and graduated from Lassiter High School. Sen. Hill and his wife have been active in the East Cobb and Sandy Springs communities for many years and attend Johnson Ferry Baptist Church. Aside from his service in the state and community, Sen. Hill has served as a Sunday school and bible study teacher for many years and is currently a partner in a telecommunications firm.
