

Senator Jeff Mullis
Senate District 53

Senator Jeff Mullis, in only his 10th two-year term as state senator representing the 53rd district, is proving to be one of Georgia's most important political leaders. Senator Mullis serves as the Chairman of the powerful Senate Rules Committee and is a member of the Senate Appropriations, Economic Development and Tourism, and Regulated Industries and Utilities Committees.

Senator Mullis also chairs the Senate Music Committee and the Halls of Fame Joint Committee, and was appointed by Governor Deal to the Georgia Film, Music and Digital Entertainment Advisory Commission. Lastly, he is the Chairman Emeritus of the Sportsman Caucus, whose mission is to promote and protect hunting, fishing and the 2nd Amendment.

Senator Mullis has been recognized by Georgia Trend Magazine as one of the "100 Most Influential People in Georgia" for ten consecutive years for his work on several issues, including transportation and economic development. His ninth recognition and honor made Sen. Mullis the legislator with the most honors in consecutive years in history. Also, James Magazine listed Senator Mullis as one of the "Most Influential Political Leaders in Georgia" for eight consecutive years.

He has also been the recipient of numerous awards and recognition for his service in recent years, including:

- Honorary Alumnus Award from ABAC Alumni Association
- Legislative Recognition Award from the Council of Probate Court Judges of Georgia
- Walker County Fire and Rescue Community Service Award
