Legislative Day 13: Senators Wear Red Badge of Courage for Women with Heart Disease

By Natalie Strong

CHAMBER (Feb. 5, 2010) - The Senate got down to business early Friday morning as lawmakers prepared to return home to their families for the weekend break. Sen. Valencia Seay (D-Riverdale) honored National Wear Red Day at the State Capitol, part of February's American Heart

Month that is sponsored annually by the American Heart Association. Senators wore red to show support for the fight against heart disease in women. Sen. Seay joined her female colleagues in the Senate to pass a resolution that recognizes the importance of the ongoing fight against heart disease and stroke in Georgia and around the country. As a survivor of a heart attack, Sen. Seay has a very personal connection to this cause and has worked diligently over the years to increase awareness of women's risk

Two bills were presented on the floor, Senate Bills 283 and 287. SB 283, sponsored by Sen. Bill Heath (R-Bremen), will encourage newly elected county tax commissioners to participate in the local retirement systems offered to them rather than becoming members of the State Employees' Retirement System. The bill passed 48 to 2. The dissenting votes were from Sens. Lester Jackson (D-Savannah) and Steve Thompson (D-Marietta).

Sen. Judson Hill (R-Marietta) presented his legislation (SB 287) requiring the Department of Driver Services to change a drivers license number when issuing a new license if the old license is lost or stolen. The bill passed unanimously.

Sen. Chip Pearson's (R-Dawsonville) Electrical Service Bill (SB 328), which authorizes the Public Service Commission to resolve disputes concerning cable companies' pole attachment rates, was slated to be presented for a vote but was tabled for further review. □

Sen. Grant's Legislation Receives Unanimous Passage in Senate

By Katie Wright

ATLANTA (Feb. 5, 2010) – Last week, State Sen. Johnny Grant (R-Milledgeville) led the Senate to unanimously pass legislation that will save taxpayers one-quarter of a million dollars per year. Senate Bill 324, authored by Sen. Grant, clarifies the powers and duties of the Georgia Peace Officer Standards and Training Council.

"Legislation that saves taxpayers money is exactly what we need to see this session," said Grant. "This legislation will also ensure that Georgia's Peace Officers are effectively trained and qualified to do the job this state has empowered them to do."

This legislation permits the Georgia Peace Officer Standards and Training Council to impose administrative fees for any authorized services that it provides. These fees are not new or additional. Imposing fees is common practice for the council under an attorney general ruling, but this legislation will ensure the legality of the practice by writing it in the Georgia Code. Without these fees, funding would come from taxpayer dollars. □
